Statutory Provisions Relating to Provision of Expert Services

COUNTY LAW

§ 722-c Services Other Than Counsel

Upon a finding in an ex parte proceeding that investigative, expert or other services are necessary and that the defendant or other person described in section two hundred forty-nine or section two hundred sixty-two of the family court act, article six-C of the correction law or section four hundred seven of the surrogate's court procedure act, is financially unable to obtain them, the court shall authorize counsel, whether or not assigned in accordance with a plan, to obtain the services on behalf of the defendant or such other person. The court upon a finding that timely procurement of necessary services could not await prior authorization may authorize the services nunc pro tunc. The court shall determine reasonable compensation for the services and direct payment to the person who rendered them or to the person entitled to reimbursement. Only in extraordinary circumstances may the court provide for compensation in excess of one thousand dollars per investigative, expert or other service provider.

Each claim for compensation shall be supported by a sworn statement specifying the time expended, services rendered, expenses incurred and reimbursement or compensation applied for or received in the same case from any other source.

JUDICIARY LAW

§ 35 Assignment of counsel to indigent persons and appointment of physicians in certain proceedings

a. When a court orders a hearing in a proceeding upon a writ of habeas corpus to inquire into the cause of detention of a person in custody in a state institution, or when it orders a hearing in a civil proceeding to commit or transfer a person to or retain him in a state institution when such person is alleged to be mentally ill, mentally defective or a narcotic addict, or when it orders a hearing for the commitment of the guardianship and custody of a child to an authorized agency by reason of the mental illness or mental retardation of a parent, or when it orders a hearing to determine whether consent to the adoption of a child shall be required of a parent who is alleged to be mentally ill or mentally retarded, or when it orders a hearing to determine the best interests of a child when the parent of the child revokes a consent to the adoption of such child and such revocation is opposed or in any adoption or custody proceeding if it determines that assignment of counsel in such cases is mandated by the constitution of this state or of the United States, the court may assign counsel to represent such person if it is satisfied that he is financially unable to obtain counsel. Upon an appeal taken from an order entered in any such proceeding, the appellate court may assign counsel to represent such person upon the appeal if it is satisfied that he is financially unable to obtain counsel.

b. Upon an appeal in a criminal action or in a proceeding in the family court or surrogate's court wherein the defendant or person entitled to counsel pursuant to the family court act or surrogate's court procedure act, is financially unable to obtain counsel, the court of appeals or the appellate division of the supreme court may assign counsel other than in the manner as is prescribed in section seven hundred twenty-two of the county law only when it is satisfied that special circumstances require such assignment.

2. The chief administrator of the courts may enter into an agreement with a legal aid society for the society to provide assigned counsel in the proceedings specified in subdivision one of this section. The agreement shall be in a form approved by the chief administrator and shall provide a general plan for a program of assigned counsel services to be provided by such society. It shall also provide that the society shall be reimbursed on a cost basis for services rendered.

3. No counsel assigned pursuant to this section shall seek or accept any fee for representing the person for whom he or she is assigned without approval of the court as herein provided. Whenever it appears that such person is financially able to obtain counsel or make partial payment for the representation, counsel may report this fact to the court and the court may terminate the assignment or authorize payment, as the interests of justice may dictate, to such counsel. Counsel assigned hereunder shall at the conclusion of the representation receive compensation at a rate of seventy-five dollars per hour for time expended in court, and seventy-five dollars per hour for time reasonably expended out of court, and shall receive reimbursement for expenses reasonably incurred. For representation upon a hearing, compensation and reimbursement shall be fixed by the court wherein the hearing was held and such compensation shall not exceed four thousand four hundred dollars. For representation in an appellate court, compensation and reimbursement shall be fixed by such court and such compensation shall not exceed four thousand four hundred dollars. In extraordinary circumstances the court may provide for compensation in excess of the foregoing limits.

4. In any proceeding described in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of this section, when a person is alleged to be mentally ill, mentally defective or a narcotic addict, the court which ordered the hearing may appoint no more than two psychiatrists, certified psychologists or physicians to examine and testify at the hearing upon the condition of such person. A psychiatrist, psychologist or physician so appointed shall, upon completion of his services, receive reimbursement for expenses reasonably incurred and reasonable compensation for such services, to be fixed by the court. Such compensation shall not exceed two hundred dollars if one psychiatrist, psychologist or physician is appointed, or an aggregate sum of three hundred dollars if two psychiatrists, psychologists or physicians are appointed, except that in extraordinary circumstances the court may provide for compensation in excess of the foregoing limits.

4-a. In any proceeding under article ten of the mental hygiene law, the court which ordered the hearing may appoint no more than two psychiatrists, certified psychologists or physicians to examine and testify at the hearing upon the condition of such person. A psychiatrist, psychologist or physician so appointed shall, upon completion of his or her services, receive reimbursement for expenses reasonably incurred and reasonable compensation for such services, to be fixed by the court in accordance with subdivision (a) of section 10.15 of the mental hygiene law.

5. All expenses for compensation and reimbursement under this section shall be a state charge to be paid out of funds appropriated to the administrative office for the courts for that purpose. Any rules and orders respecting the assignment and compensation of counsel, and the appointment and compensation of psychiatrists, psychologists or physicians pursuant to this section and the form and manner of processing of a claim submitted pursuant to this section shall be adopted by the chief administrator. Each claim for compensation and reimbursement pursuant to subdivisions three and four of this section shall be submitted for approval to the court which made the assignment or appointment, and shall be on such form as the chief administrator may direct. After such claim is approved by the court, it shall be certified to the comptroller for payment by the state, out of the funds appropriated for that purpose.

6. Assigned counsel and guardians ad litem appointed pursuant to the provisions of title two of article nine-B of the social services law shall be compensated in accordance with the provisions of this section.

7. Whenever the supreme court or a surrogate's court shall appoint counsel in a proceeding over which the family court might have exercised jurisdiction had such action or proceeding been commenced in family court or referred thereto pursuant to law, and under circumstances whereby, if such proceeding were pending in family court, such court would be authorized by section two hundred forty-nine of the family court act to appoint a law guardian, such counsel shall be compensated in accordance with the provisions of this section.

8. Whenever supreme court shall exercise jurisdiction over a matter which the family court might have exercised jurisdiction had such action or proceeding been commenced in family court or referred thereto pursuant to law, and under circumstances whereby, if such proceedings were pending in family court, such court would be required by section two hundred sixty-two of the family court act to appoint counsel, supreme court shall also appoint counsel and such counsel shall be compensated in accordance with the provisions of this section.

Administrative Policies and Procedures

Guidelines for Mental Health Professionals Performing Court Ordered Evaluations in Supreme and Family Courts

Order of Appointment

1. The expert should not proceed without a copy of the court's order of appointment. The order of appointment should be reviewed carefully as it will guide the expert in proceeding with his/her evaluation(s) and report. When reviewing the order, it is suggested that the expert pay particular attention to these areas:
 - a. whether the expert's correct name and discipline appears in the order
 - b. the names of all parties to be seen
 - c. the date by which the expert must submit the report
 - d. the correct hourly rate or other relevant fee arrangement
 - e. whether a cap has been set on the expert's fee by the trial court
 - f. whether the expert's fee has been apportioned by the court
 - g. whether the court has directed the expert to make or not make a recommendation
 - h. any special issues to be addressed; if not clearly stated, ask for clarification

Interaction with Court and Counsel During Evaluation Process

1. If the expert intends to refer components of the evaluation to any individual he/she must obtain prior approval from the court.
2. Unless authorized by the court, the expert should not have contact with counsel for either party or counsel for the child(ren) during the pendency of the evaluation, except with regard to scheduling appointments, issues involving payment of the expert's fees, and the exchange of documents.
3. The expert should ascertain the name and phone number of the court contact person, such as the court clerk, court attorney, or secretary, should the need arise.
4. Any problems encountered in setting up appointments or missed appointments should be brought immediately to the attention of the court.

Submission of Report

It is suggested that the expert should attach a cover letter to the report and indicate the docket or index number on the report.

Compensation Guidelines

1. The estimated amount of hours necessary to perform the evaluation and prepare the report should be discussed by the expert with the court's staff, prior to the preparation of the order of appointment. If the expert is to be paid privately by the parties, the expert should advise the court of his/her hourly rate. If the expert is to be paid by the government, the expert should be aware of the fee guidelines.

2. Experts are expected to keep time records for each evaluation assignment. These records must minimally include the client's name, the date and time of the activity session, the actual time expended and a description of the work performed, including all phone conversations.
3. If the evaluator anticipates that the cost of the evaluation and report (not including testimony) is likely to exceed the cap, if any, set by the court, then he/she must first make a supplemental request in a letter to the court copied to all counsel.
4. In private pay cases, where the court has determined that the expert shall be paid privately by the parties, the expert should contact the parties or the parties' attorneys forthwith, to arrange for the manner of payment. If a party refuses to pay, the expert should notify the court.

Court Testimony

1. If so ordered and directed by the court, the evaluator is to appear and give testimony.
2. If the original court order of appointment did not provide for compensation for testimony, then the expert should be aware that a supplemental order may be necessary.

1. This statement is being made pursuant to the Rules of the Chief Administrator § 127.2 Compensation of Counsel and Other Providers in Extraordinary Circumstances, in support of my request for compensation in excess of the statutory maximum permitted by § 35 of the Judiciary Law and/or court ordered cap.

3. The accompanying voucher details the time and effort expended in evaluating the litigants. This matter was referred for a comprehensive [psychiatric/psychological work-up/evaluation] [observation and evaluation/assessment by a social worker], as a result of the perception of complex problems involved. The issues the Court directed be addressed necessitated lengthy clinical interviews, mental status examinations, psychiatric/psychological testing, document reviews and the preparation of a comprehensive written report.
