Presiding Justice Renwick Announces that the Appellate Division, First Department will hear oral arguments in the Bronx on December 7, 2023

Today, Presiding Justice Dianne T. Renwick announced that the Appellate Division, First Department will hold its December 7, 2023, session at the landmark Bronx County courthouse, located at 851 Grand Concourse. The session will be held in the Ceremonial Courtroom on the 7th floor, commencing at 2:00 pm. The Court's calendar will consist of appeals from matters originating in the Bronx. Matters originating in the Bronx make up approximately 25 percent of the First Department's caseload.

The oral arguments in the Bronx will be heard by a historic bench – all First Department Justices of Color elected in the Bronx. The bench will be comprised of Presiding Justice Renwick, Justice Sallie Manzanet-Daniels, Justice Lizbeth González, Justice Julio Rodriguez III, and Justice Bahaati E. Pitt-Burke.

The arguments will be live streamed starting at 2:00 pm and may be observed on the Court's YouTube channel or via the live webcast link on the Court's website - Unified Court System \(nycourts.gov\).
