CLERKSHIP PROGRAM
2007

THE COMMERCIAL DIVISION OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

NEW YORK COUNTY IS ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL COMMERCIAL CENTERS IN THE COUNTRY, a major situs of national and international financial transactions, commercial finance and the equity markets, business, technology, the media, publishing and the arts. Because of New York County's vital and vibrant role as a center for commerce, the Commercial Division of New York County is a key forum for important commercial litigation.

What is the Commercial Division ?

THE COMMERCIAL DIVISION IS THE SPECIALIZED BUSINESS COURT of the New York State Supreme Court. Many of the most complicated and important commercial cases in the State are adjudicated in the Division. The Commercial Division was established in 1995 after a two-year pilot program in New York County. The Division carries forward the great New York tradition of leadership in the development of commercial law in the United States, a tradition which began with Chancellor Kent and Alexander Hamilton, was built upon significantly by Chief Judge Cardozo and colleagues, and continues today.

How does the New York County Commercial Division operate ?

THE COMMERCIAL DIVISION in New York County is made up of six Justices and one Senior Justice. These Justices are experienced members of the New York State Supreme Court assigned to the Division by the Administrative Judge of New York County Supreme Court with the approval of the Chief Administrative Judge of the State of New York. The Justices serve in the Division for indefinite terms.

Cases are accepted in accordance with written standards. Among the categories of eligible cases are commercial contract disputes, cases involving commercial finance or commercial banking transactions, claims of commercial misrepresentation or unfair competition, matters arising out of commercial real property transactions, major insurance matters, and UCC cases. Commercial cases seeking monetary damages will be accepted in the Division if a sum of $125,000 or more is at issue.

The Commercial Division is both expert and efficient.

THE CONCENTRATION OF COMPLEX COMMERCIAL LITIGATION in New York County has permitted the Justices of the Division to develop substantial familiarity with the dynamics of commercial litigation and expertise in commercial law. The Division seeks to achieve resolution of matters on the merits in accordance with the highest judicial standards. The familiarity of the Justices with commercial litigation also contributes to efficient and effective case management, particularly of the discovery process, which in the absence of management can lead to serious delay and significant expense for the parties.

Cases are assigned to the Division Justices at random. Justices are responsible for their own inventory from the outset of each matter to its conclusion.

What will a Commercial Division Clerkship offer?

FOR NEW ATTORNEYS, especially those who aspire to a career in commercial law, a clerkship in the New York County Commercial Division will be an invaluable experience. Law Clerks will be in a position to make significant contributions to the resolution of major cases and in doing so will gain a vast amount of practical understanding of the litigation of commercial cases. Law Clerks will be afforded a special perspective on the workings of the Commercial Division, the judicial process in commercial cases and the operation of the courts. Law Clerks will be exposed daily to the work of firms practicing law at the highest professional level.
