MaryAnne Huecker is Suffolk County's Court Employee of the Month

CENTRAL ISLIP, N.Y. - Suffolk County's District Administrative Judge, H. Patrick Leis III, is pleased to announce that MaryAnne Huecker, a Data Recording Assistant with the Commissioner of Jurors in Riverhead, is being honored today as Employee of the Month for March.

MaryAnne began her career as an Office Typist with the Commissioner of Jurors in Riverhead in June of 1978. In 1983, MaryAnne was promoted to the position of Data Entry Clerk and remained in that position until her present assignment as Data Recording Assistant in 2004. As a Data Recording Assistant, MaryAnne is responsible for a wide variety of duties, including entering into the computer database information obtained from juror questionnaires, handling juror payroll issues, researching juror information, as well as handling on a daily basis questions from the public concerning jury service.

Employee of the Month - 2

MaryAnne, a long time resident of Mattituck, is married to her husband Hank. She is the proud mother of Denise Geffken of Aquebogue and Victoria Geffken of Riverhead. Needless to say, they are all very proud of her accomplishments, but perhaps MaryAnne's biggest fan is her 3 year old granddaughter, Rhiannon, who is expected to join her on this very special day.

MaryAnne is being recognized for her nearly 27 years of unsurpassed dedication and commitment to her job, as well as to her colleagues, in the Suffolk County courts. Over the years she has consistently performed her daily responsibilities in a superior manner. Simply put, MaryAnne is the type of employee that any department would love to have. On a daily basis, she goes above and beyond to ensure that her department runs as efficiently as possible. Moreover, MaryAnne enthusiastically makes herself available to her fellow workers for assistance, she is truly a team player.

In sum, MaryAnne is a model public servant who has always given her best, day in and day out. Anyone who has ever worked with MaryAnne knows of her genuine kindness, cheerful nature and her special knack for making people feel comfortable. Without a doubt, her presence over the past 27 years has truly made the Commissioner of Jurors in Suffolk County a better place and, for that alone, she is most deserving of this month's Employee of the Month Award.
