

(November, 2008)

TOM ALLMAN was an early advocate of the need for amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure to achieve e-discovery reform and currently co-chairs the E-Discovery Committee of the Lawyers for Civil Justice. He also co-chairs the Steering Committee of the Sedona Conference® Working Group on Electronic Discovery and Document Production and was an Editor of the Second Edition of the Sedona Principles. Mr. Allman formerly served as General Counsel of BASF Corporation in Mt. Olive, New Jersey. He resides in Cincinnati and New York City and received his J.D. from Yale Law School.