A person UNLAWFULLY possesses marihuana when that person has no legal right to possess it.³ Under our law, with certain exceptions not applicable here, a person has no legal right to possess marihuana.

In order for you to find the defendant guilty of this offense, the People are required to prove, from all the evidence in the case, beyond a reasonable doubt, both of the following two elements:

¹ See Penal Law § 10.00(8). Where constructive possession is alleged, or where the People rely on a statutory presumption of possession, insert the appropriate instruction from the "Additional Charges" section at the end of the charges for Penal Law article 220.

² See Penal Law § 15.05(2).
