Landlord's Reason to Ask for Eviction

1. Your landlord says you owe back rent and interest on the back rent. Look at the Petition that came with this Notice for how much the landlord thinks you owe.
2. Your landlord wants the court to make a judgment to order you to pay back rent and interest. If you agree with the amount the landlord thinks you owe and you pay the landlord, the court will dismiss the case. Take your payment or proof of payment to court.

Your Answer

1. Your response to the Petition is called an Answer. You can speak your Answer in court. Or you can write your Answer and take it with you to court.
2. Your Answer tells your side of the case and the reasons the landlord should not win. The reasons are called defenses. You can also talk about money that the landlord owes you or repairs you need. If you do not tell the court about a defense, you might not be able to use it to support your case or any other case. Learn more about Answers at: nycourts.gov/forms/landlordtenant/.

Need more time to get ready for court?

Go to court on your court date and ask for a 14-day postponement. (RPAPL 745)
