Landlord's Reason to Ask for Eviction

1. Your landlord says you owe back rent. Look at the Eviction Petition that came with this Notice for how much the landlord thinks you owe.
2. Your landlord is asking the court to make a judgment ordering you to pay back rent. If you agree with the amount the landlord thinks you owe and you pay the landlord, the court will dismiss the case. Take your payment or proof of payment to court.

How to Respond to the Petition

1. Your response to the Petition is called an Answer. You can speak your Answer when you go to court. Or you can write it and bring it with you.
2. Your Answer tells your side of the case and the reasons why you should be allowed to stay. These reasons are called defenses. If you do not tell the court about a defense, you might not be able to use it to support your case or any other case. You can also talk about money that the landlord owes you. These are called counterclaims. Learn more about Answers at: nycourts.gov/forms/landlordtenant/.

Need more time to get ready for court?

You have a right to postpone the case for 14 days, but you must go to court and ask for the postponement.
