

ANALISA TORRES

Analisa Torres was appointed to the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York on April 23, 2013. She served on the New York State bench, from 2000 to 2013, in the Supreme, Criminal and Civil Courts. Following seven years of practice in major Manhattan law firms, in 1993, Torres was appointed to the New York City Planning Commission. For seven years, she served as law clerk to New York State Supreme Court Justice Elliott Wilk. Judge Torres was a member of the CUNY Law School Board of Visitors from 2008 to 2015, and served on the Board of Directors of the Women's Housing and Economic Development Corporation-as a director and then chair-from 1997 to 2017. She was awarded the Charles Evans Hughes Fellowship at Columbia Law School and graduated Harvard College magna cum laude.
