

GISELLE VALDEZ

Giselle Valdez is a second-year law student at Columbia Law School and is from San Diego, California. She has been leading the scriptwriting and directing of the Mendez v. Westminster re-enactment. She graduated from Columbia College in 2020 with a Bachelor's degree in English Literature. Before law school, she earned a Master's in the Social Science of the Internet at the University of Oxford as Columbia University's Doctorow Fellow.

At Columbia Law School, Giselle is the Communications Chair of the Latinx Law Students Association, was a member of the American Intellectual Property Law Association (AIPLA) Moot Court Team, and assists in the Lawyering in the Digital Age Clinic. She was an SEO Law Fellow at Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP in New York City and a 1L Diversity Fellow at Cooley LLP. She will be a 2L Summer Associate at Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP.

She is primarily interested in the intersection of transactional law and technology. Giselle is the founder of @TheLegalGist—an online platform and podcast that shares affordable pre-law resources and stories of diverse legal leaders with thousands of underrepresented pre-law students. In her free time, she enjoys going to art museums, listening to music, and watching sports.
