

Hello your Honors, students, and friends: my name is Nicole Castillo Guiracocha and I'll be playing the role of Sylvia! I am a 1L at St. John's University School of Law. I am interested in working in the public interest field to help immigrants, women of color, children and indigent populations. I am really excited to participate in this reenactment. Thank you for coming and showing your support!