

Rudy Carmenaty Bio

Rudy Carmenaty presently serves as the Deputy Commissioner of the Nassau County Department of Social Service. Prior to his appointment, Rudy was a Bureau Chief in the Office of the Nassau County Attorney and was the Director of Legal Services for both the Nassau County Department of Social Services and the Nassau County Department of Human Services.

Rudy received his Juris Doctor from the Columbia Law School, and he earned a BA with Honors from Rutgers.

A member of the American Bar Association, the Long Island Hispanic Bar Association, and the New York City Bar Association; he is both the Chair of the Diversity & Inclusion Committee and the Publications Committee of the Nassau County Bar Association. His monthly column on legal topics appears in the Nassau Lawyer.