

PROMOTING PROSTITUTION IN THE FOURTH DEGREE
(Advance or Profit)
Penal Law § 230.20(1)
(Committed on or after January 19, 2016)

The (specify) count is Promoting Prostitution in the Fourth Degree.

Under our law, a person is guilty of Promoting Prostitution in the Fourth Degree when that person knowingly advances or profits from prostitution.

The following terms used in that definition have a special meaning:

PROSTITUTION means the act or practice of engaging, or agreeing or offering to engage in sexual conduct¹ with another person in return for a fee.

A person ADVANCES PROSTITUTION when, acting other than as a person in prostitution or as a patron thereof, he or she knowingly causes or aids a person to commit or engage in prostitution, procures or solicits patrons for prostitution, provides persons or premises for prostitution purposes, operates or assists in the operation of a house of prostitution or a prostitution enterprise, or engages in any other conduct designed to institute, aid or facilitate an act or enterprise of prostitution.

¹ Penal Law § 230.00. Except for the definition of the crimes of “aggravated patronizing a minor for prostitution” [Penal Law §§ 230.11; 230.12; and 230.13], there is no statutory definition of the term “sexual conduct” that is expressly applicable to the statutes contained in Penal Law article 230. (The term is defined in Penal Law 130.00(10) for purposes of Penal Law article 130 [sex offenses]). See Prus v. Holder, 660 F.3d 144 (2d Cir. 2011) (“Although ‘sexual conduct’ is not defined in Article 230, the plain language of the statute makes clear that prostitution in New York encompasses accepting payment for sexual acts beyond . . . “sexual intercourse”). For New York decisional law interpretations of the term for prostitution, see In re Marco M., 158 A.D.2d 342, 342–43 (1990) (the required element of sexual conduct was satisfied where the defendant said he wanted “to get laid but [not] shortchanged”); People v. Medina, 179 Misc.2d 617 (Cr Ct, NY County 1999) (“sexual conduct” includes a sex act between men); People v. Hinzmann, 177 Misc.2d 531 (Cr Ct, Bronx County, 1998) (the term includes “lap dancing” with physical contact); People v. Costello, 90 Misc.2d 431 (Sup Ct, NY County, 1977) (the term includes sexual intercourse, oral and anal sexual conduct, and masturbation). But see People v. Greene, 110 Misc.2d 40 (Cr Ct, NY County, 1981) (the term does not include “autoerotic performance” without physical contact). The term “deviate sexual intercourse” used in Costello has since been repealed and under the current statutes refers to “oral” or “anal” sexual conduct [Penal Law § 130.00 (2) (a) and (b)].

A person PROFITS FROM PROSTITUTION when, acting other than as a person in prostitution receiving compensation for personally rendered prostitution services, he or she accepts or receives money or other property pursuant to an agreement or understanding with any person whereby he or she participates or is to participate in the proceeds of prostitution activity.⁴

A person KNOWINGLY advances or profits from prostitution when that person is aware that he or she is advancing or profiting from prostitution.⁵

In order for you to find the defendant guilty of this crime, the People are required to prove, from all of the evidence in the case, beyond a reasonable doubt, each of the following two elements:

1. That on or about (date), in the County of (County), the defendant, (defendant's name), advanced or profited from prostitution; and
2. That the defendant did so knowingly.

If you find that the People have proven beyond a reasonable doubt both of those elements, you must find the defendant guilty of this crime.

If you find that the People have not proven beyond a reasonable doubt either one or both of those elements, you must find the defendant not guilty of this crime.

⁴ Penal Law § 230.15 (2).

⁵ See Penal Law § 15.05 (2). An expanded definition of “knowingly,” is set forth in the General charges in the “Culpable Mental States” section.
