Section 3. Inspectors General.

(a) (i) The Inspector General system shall be a single aggregate of personnel and resources within the Department of Investigation under the direction of the Commissioner. There shall be an Inspector General for each agency who shall report directly to the Commissioner and shall be responsible for the investigation and elimination of corrupt or other criminal activity and conflicts of interest within the agency to which he or she is designated. The Commissioner shall allocate the personnel and resources of the Inspector General system to the Inspector General offices as needed to develop strategies and programs for the investigation and elimination of corruption and other criminal activity affecting the City of New York. Such investigations and programs shall proceed in accordance with the Commissioner's direction.

Agency heads shall submit their own annual performance evaluation of the resident Inspector General and Deputy Inspector General, based on the agreed upon tasks and standards, to the Commissioner, which evaluations shall be considered in determining the Commissioner's final evaluation of such persons.

(g) Prior to submitting executive budget requests for the Offices of the Inspectors General for fiscal year 1987 and thereafter, the Commissioner shall consult with the respective agency head.

(a) Effective July 1, 1987, each agency shall be responsible for the preparation and prosecution of all formal administrative proceedings, including removal and other disciplinary proceedings for misconduct or incompetency. Each agency head shall establish a system for such formal disciplinary proceedings in consultation with the Commissioner. An Inspector General may request an agency to hold disciplinary or other administrative action in abeyance pending the completion of a criminal investigation if such disciplinary or administrative action would interfere with the criminal investigation. The Inspector General shall be notified before the initiation of formal disciplinary proceedings against an employee and shall be notified of the disposition of all formal disciplinary proceedings.

Section 4. Section 5(b) of prior Executive Order No. 16, dated July 26, 1978, as amended by Executive Order No. 78, dated October 5, 1984 is hereby repealed.
